Presentations

Bee Presentable are qualified trainers and presenters, and we take pride in everything we do.

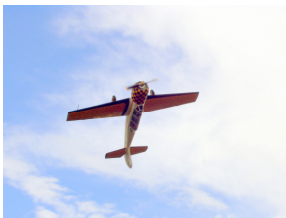

We have a host of presentations for you to choose from that will liven up all sorts of events for your group or organisations gathering!

Further information on any of the presentations shown here is available from the web site, including prices. You'll find us refreshingly affordable!

Yak Chat

An illustrated, informative, yet light-hearted and humorous talk on display flying the Yak-52. Suitable for groups of people of all ages and gender. The presenter (a current air display pilot), draws the audience in, and through the use of pictures, sound and large screen video, allows you to experience at first hand the thrills of display flying.

"You will be amazed, and ponder in awe at just what's involved!"

Unravelling the web

The internet for beginners - you'll understand the basics after untangling the jargon from this presentation. Find out about how it all started, and what "the web" looks like from a nuts and bolts point of view. See how to keep your children safe, and what the future holds. Enlightening for young and old alike.

Aromatherapy

The good, the bad, and the smelly!

This informal talk on aromatherapy is truly nose-opening. Learn about the benefits of essential oils and their uses in a practical way.

An amazing item by a knowledgeable presenter, you're taken through the uses of various oils. From serious to fun, soothing to laughter: this presentation has it all!

All stitched up

An informal talk on the how-to's of cross stitch, tips and tricks - including the use of PC applications to create your own patterns.

Milk: by a cow

Ever wondered how milk gets from grass to fridge?

What's the difference between all those colours; red, green, blue?

Well, why not let us enlighten you with an informal talk giving you a virtual tour of the wonders of the milk processing world.

Presented by an expert, all your questions will be answered. Suitable for any age!

Web Design

A presentation on best practice and considerations for web page design is a must for newbies, including basic technical information behind the tools you'll probably use.
